Butte, Mont., March 31.—F. Augustus Heinze, president of the Montana Ore Purchasing company; A. L. Frank, superintendent of the Saving Saving the Johnstown, and J. H. Trerise, superintendent of the Rarus mine, today paid their fines for violating the order of the federal court, enjoining Heinze and the Amalgamated interests from mining the Michael Daviti lode chaim.

After much discussion and strong resistance on the part of the Montana Ore Purchasing company attorneys, Judge Beatty, in the federal court, this morning signed the order aske * for by the attorneys of the Butte & Boston company granting the Butte & Boston of the Rarus and Johnstown claims.

Mr. Denny, for the defendants, interposed a plan to allow an inspection of the workings of the Rarus and Johnstown claims, and workings leading into the disputed ground, but offering a plan whereby the Montana Ore Purchasing company would be allowed to Inspect all mangamated properties.

PARK CITY HAPPENINGS.

Park City, March 31.—The raiding of a private room in the rear of a barber shop on upper Main street resulted in the arrest of a man who gave his name as Hiram Brown and a woman named Susio Rowe. The pair were arraigned before Judge W. S. Lockhart this morning on a charge of fornleation. The woman pleaded not guilty to the charge, while Brown pleaded not guilty as charged, and his bonds were fixed at $30. Trial will be tomorrow.

A meeting of the volunteer fire department of Park City was held last evening at the city hall. At the meeting a resolution was passed to petition the city council to abolish the office of fire warden and to purchase three new hand chemicals of the kind recently decided upon.
